5. The Subscriber must provide a valid e-mail address for delivery. The MMIM shall be delivered to the Subscriber's last known e-mail address for delivery by electronic means and subject to such delivery charges as currently adopted by the Land Registry at the date of approval of the Subscriber's application. No refund of subscription fees will be available for a termination of service pursuant to Clause 10(b) due to a breach of agreement.

(d) Any termination of service by the Land Registry pursuant to this clause shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims which have accrued or may have accrued to the Land Registry against the Subscriber by reason of any other or any antecedent breach of the terms or conditions on the part of the Subscriber.

(b) The Land Registry has an absolute discretion in choosing the mode of delivery considered by it to be reliable and of reasonable despatch, and there is no warranty that the MMIM will be delivered in time for any specific purpose of the Subscriber.

15. The Land Registry reserves the right to amend any particular format, layout and/or transmission media of the MMIM and also to add to, delete and/or to vary the types of information as contained in the MMIM or the MMIM data files upon 14 days' notice to the Subscriber.

16. Both the subscription fees and the Subscriber's rights under the terms and conditions herein shall be personal to the Subscriber and cannot be assigned or transferred to any third party.
