

The New Territories Lot/Address Cross Reference Table (23rd Edition)

Introduction

The New Territories Lot/Address Cross Reference Table (CRT) is published by the Land Registry to help users correlate property addresses and building names with lot numbers so as to facilitate land searches for properties in the New Territories.

The CRT data are stored in a single compact disc (CD), thus enabling users to search the data speedily and conveniently.

Updating of the CRT

The CRT is updated annually and released for sale as a new edition.

Since the last edition, 1,462 amendments have been made and 7 new streets and 1,023 new lots/sections/ subsections have been added to the CRT data.

The 23rd edition shows the position as at 31 December 2021, according to data supplied by the Rating and Valuation Department and information available in the Land Registry up to that date. New data from 1 January 2022 onwards will be published in the next edition.

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy of the CRT, the Land Registry will accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions. If there are any errors or omissions, please report them to the Street Index & CRT Help Desk or the Customer Service Manager.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Upon acceptance of the Purchaser's order, the Land Registry agrees to grant to the Purchaser a non-exclusive non-transferable licence to use and have access to the CRT defined in the Order Form ("the Licence") subject to these terms and conditions.
2. The Licence shall be sold to the Purchaser in the form of a paper licence or in such other mode as may from time to time be determined by the Land Registry. The Licence is the Purchaser's proof of the licence to exercise the rights granted herein and must be retained by the Purchaser.
3. The Licence is granted solely in respect of the particular edition of the CRT appearing in the said Order Form and shall not be used in relation to any other editions of the CRT sold by the Land Registry from time to time.
4. The Licence shall commence from the grant thereof by the Land Registry and shall remain in effect until it is terminated by the Land Registry on the ground that the Purchaser has breached the terms and conditions herein.
5. The Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the acquisition of his own computer equipment, software, skills and support in order to install the CRT on the Purchaser's server linked to the number of computer terminals from which access to the CRT is permitted in the Licence ("the computer network"). The Land Registry shall not be responsible in whatever respect in connection therewith.
6. The computer network shall be a closed network over which the Purchaser must have absolute control and can (inter alia) prevent the further distribution of the CRT not permitted by these terms and conditions. The Purchaser must have an effective mechanism or system in place to ensure that the number of computer terminals in the computer network does not exceed the number of computer terminals from which access to the CRT is permitted in the Licence.
7. All rights in the CRT including copyright and other intellectual property rights and all rights to apply for the same whether existing at the commencement of the Licence or thereafter which are not specifically granted to the Purchaser herein are expressly reserved to the Land Registry.
8. The CRT shall not be used or accessed by any person other than the Purchaser and the users authorized or permitted by the Purchaser ("the authorized users"). The Purchaser shall not assign, rent, lease, resell or sublicense the Licence in its original paper form or in any other form. The Purchaser shall not and shall ensure that no authorised users shall copy or reproduce or transmit the CRT or any part thereof in any form by any means for the use by any person other than the Purchaser and the authorized users.
9. The Purchaser shall not use and shall ensure that no authorised users shall use the CRT for activities which are unlawful.
10. The Land Registry shall not be responsible for the accuracy, completeness and/or consistency of the CRT nor shall the Land Registry be required to make any subsequent amendments to the CRT.
11. The Land Registry shall not be liable to the Purchaser or the authorized users or any other person for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from the use of the CRT or from any errors, deficiencies or faults therein or from any failure or delay in the provision of the Licence whether such loss or damage is caused by negligence or otherwise.
12. The Purchaser's rights and obligations under these terms and conditions shall be personal to the Purchaser and shall not be assignable or transferable.
13. Notices to be given to the Purchaser shall be sufficient if given in writing and personally delivered or mailed to the address last known to the Land Registry as provided by the Purchaser.
14. These terms and conditions shall be governed by the laws of Hong Kong.
